

World War I & The Roaring Twenties

Study Guide

World War I & The Roaring Twenties

1. What new freedoms did women enjoy in the 1920s?

2. Describe the term "suffrage."

3. Who were the major writers of the Harlem Renaissance?

4. What did Sinclair Lewis write about?

5. Why was prohibition a failure during the 1920s?

6. Evaluate the social changes women experienced on the home front as a result of World War I. ☆

7. Why did President Wilson encounter opposition in the U.S. Senate in his efforts to ratify the Treaty of Versailles. ☆

8. How did the influenza pandemic affect America after World War I?

9. What was the Red Scare fear of and who were targeted?

10. How did the Harlem Renaissance contribute to social and political change for African Americans during the 1920s? ☆

11. What did the United States gain from World War I?

12. What is the Teapot Dome Scandal and when did it occur?

 half-way done

13. Describe each economic policy.

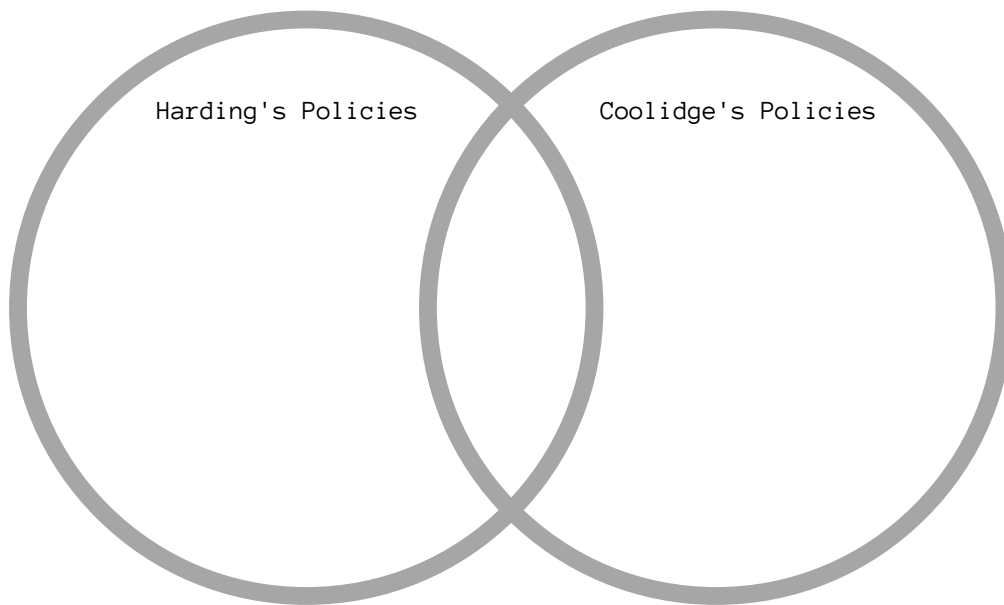

Emergency Tariff of 1920

Kellogg-Briand Pact

Washington Disarmament
Conference

Revenue Act of 1924

14. Compare and contrast:

15. What impact did the assembly line have on society?

---

---

---

16. What was the impact of advertisements during the 1920s?

---

---

---

17. What was the Sacco and Vanzetti case seen as so important?

18. Describe each term:

militarism
nationalism
imperialism

19. During World War I, which existing weapon was made significantly more effective with new technology?

20. How did World War I affect labor unions?

21. Why was the War Industries Board created during World War I?

22. What political impact did Wilson's 14 points have?

23. What was the United States Army's role in the Meuse-Argonne Offensive?

24. What led to the decline of the Second Ku Klux Klan?

25. Identify the causes and effects of the 19th Amendment.

causes

effects

Rooting for your success!

